THREE NEWSPAPER REPORTERS
JAILED BY COURTS BECAUSE THEY REFUSE TO NAME
BOOTLEGGERS

Washington, Oct. 30.—Hysteria over law enforcement in the District of Columbia, resulting from hectic police developments of recent weeks and President Hoover's demand that the Capital be made "the model city of the land," has now put members of the Federal Judiciary in strenuous and conspicuous positions. As usual prohibition enforcement, or rather the lack of it, is part of the background.

Today Peyton Gordon, one of the Justices of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, sentenced to jail for forty-five days each three Washington newspaper reporters who refused to give to a grand jury names and data concerning liquor law violations, uncovered for the Washington Times. Gordon declined to release the men—Gorman M. Hendricks, Linton Burkett and Jack Nevin, Jr.—under bond pending an appeal. Each man formally declined to give the information sought.

NORTHERN INDIANA CITIES DEMANDING RUM CLEAN-UP IN ELECTION NOVEMBER 5

U. S. Prohibition Expose Is Issue Of Hot Cam-pain This Fall Up State

Demands for cleanup in northern Indiana are featuring many of the campaigns for municipal offices to be filled in the elections on Nov. 5.

The federal investigation into booze and vote crimes, which has resulted in the indictment of many politicians and bootleggers, has furnished plenty of material for reform candidates. The offices to be filled at the elections include in all the Indiana cities the mayor, councilmen, city judge, city treasurer, and city clerk.

Details Of Campaign

The candidates for mayor in the principal northern Indiana cities and some of the issues in the campaigns follow:

Gary—Roswell O. Johnson, Republican, a former mayor, who was convicted of federal offenses and then unconditionally pardoned by President Coolidge, is opposed by Emmet N. White, Democrat, a lawyer. Johnson, whose chief support comes from the forces of Ralph D. Bradford, new political boss of Gary, seeks vindication of his name. White calls upon the voters to "clear the fair name of Gary."

Chicago—Mayor Raleigh P. Hale, Republican, one of those new federal indictment for conspiracy to violate the prohibition law, is serving his first term. He will be arraigned in federal court on Nov. 5. His

Drys Are Beaten; Conservatives Win Fight In Ontario

Premier Ferguson VICTORIOUS AT GENERAL ELECTION IN WHICH PROHIBITION WAS ISSUE

Toronto, Oct. 31.—The Canadian Press tonight announced victory for the conservative government of Premier Howard Ferguson in the Ontario general elections.

The election of Premier Ferguson over his prohibitionist opponent, the Rev. T. H. Bradley, was conceded at 8:20 o'clock at which hour he had piled up a majority of almost 1,900 votes.

The principal issue before the voters was the liquor control act inaugurated by Premier Ferguson. In its stead the Progressives had demanded bone-dry legislation, while the Liberals declared for a plebiscite when man for a change should become master.

Whatever the merits of the charges,
